ABOUT US

International Human Rights & Crime Control Council (IHRCCC) is an autonomous, voluntary, non-governmental, non-discriminatory and non-profit organization aiming to uphold, protect and enforce the human rights of alienated, marginalized and helpless communities and individuals in India and abroad for an equitable society. The International Human Rights & Crime Control Council(IHRCCC) works consistently to advocate the 'Human Rights' of citizens in India and abroad. Headquartered in New Delhi, International Human Rights & Crime Control Council (IHRCCC) works with a global focus with its partners in many countries for advocating human rights of individuals. International Human Rights & Crime Control Council (IHRCCC) is also actively engaged in creating legal and human rights awareness among the public and in particular the under-privileged sections of the society. We have an advisory council consists of many senior bureaucrats, legal experts, and professionals of different fields who are providing their valuable advise to this organisation time to time on honorary basis. International Human Rights & Crime Control Council (IHRCCC) is a leading worldwide organization which advances action on 'Human Rights' issues for citizens. We believe in the philosophy of "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" meaning "The World Is One Family".

Our work is based on the guidelines provided by United Nations and Indian legal framework. We want zero discrimination while providing services to every human being. All our work is directed towards creating a better world for the future of humanity. International Human Rights & Crime Control Council(IHRCCC) works for every individuals to get their legal rights in fair ways.

IHRCCC is working to protect & promote following human rights :

We Are All Born Free & Equal. We are all born free. We all have our own thoughts and ideas. We should all be treated in the same way. Don't Discriminate. These rights belong to everybody, whatever our differences. The Right to Life. We all have the right to life, and to live in freedom and safety. No Slavery. Nobody has any right to make us a slave. We cannot make anyone our slave. No Torture. Nobody has any right to hurt us or to torture us. You Have Rights No Matter Where You Go. I am a person just like you! We're All Equal Before the Law. The law is the same for everyone. It must treat us all fairly. Your Human Rights Are Protected by Law. We can all ask for the law to help us when we are not treated fairly. No Unfair Detainment. Nobody has the right to put us in prison without good reason and keep us there, or to send us away from our country. The Right to Trial. If we are put on trial this should be in public. The people who try us should not let anyone tell them what to do.

We're Always Innocent Till Proven Guilty. Nobody should be blamed for doing something until it is proven. When people say we did a bad thing we have the right to show it is not true. The Right to Privacy. Nobody should try to harm our good name. Nobody has the right to come into our home, open our letters, or bother us or our family without a good reason. Freedom to Move. We all have the right to go where we want in our own country and to travel as we wish. The Right to Seek a Safe Place to Live. If we are frightened of being badly treated in our own country, we all have the right to run away to another country to be safe. Right to a Nationality. We all have the right to belong to a country. Marriage and Family. Every grown-up has the right to marry and have a family if they want to. Men and women have the same rights when they are married, and when they are separated. The Right to Your Own Things. Everyone has the right to own things or share them. Nobody should take our things from us without a good reason. Freedom of Thought. We all have the right to believe in what we want to believe, to have a religion, or to change it if we want. Freedom of Expression.

We all have the right to make up our own minds, to think what we like, to say what we think, and to share our ideas with other people. The Right to Public Assembly. We all have the right to meet our friends and to work together in peace to defend our rights. Nobody can make us join a group if we don't want to. The Right to Democracy. We all have the right to take part in the government of our country. Every grown-up should be allowed to choose their own leaders.

Social Security. We all have the right to affordable housing, medicine, education, and childcare, enough money to live on and medical help if we are ill or old. Workers' Rights. Every grown-up has the right to do a job, to a fair wage for their work, and to join a trade union. The Right to Play. We all have the right to rest from work and to relax. Food and Shelter for All. We all have the right to a good life. Mothers and children, people who are old, unemployed or disabled, and all people have the right to be cared for. The Right to Education. Education is a right. Primary school should be free. We should learn about the United Nations and how to get on with others. Our parents can choose what we learn. Copyright. Copyright is a special law that protects one's own artistic creations and writings; others cannot make copies without permission. We all have the right to our own way of life and to enjoy the good things that art, science and learning bring. A Fair and Free World. There must be proper order so we can all enjoy rights and freedoms in our own country and all over the world. Responsibility. We have a duty to other people, and we should protect their rights and freedoms. No One Can Take Away Your Human Rights.
